PIZZA FACTS

The first pizzeria in the United States was opened by Gennaro Lombardi in 1895 in New York City

Ninety-three percent of Americans eat pizza at least once a month.

October is the US national pizza month.

Over 5 billion pizzas are sold worldwide each year.

Pizza comes from the latin root word Picea which means the blackening of crust by fire.

The largest pizza ever made was 122 ft. 8 in. in diameter.
